

2022 Godolphin Stud and Stable Staff Awards

Sponsored by Godolphin and run by the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) in association with the Racing Post and Racing TV, the awards provide total prize money of £128,500 with up to £30,000 available to a single yard or stud.

The categories are: Leadership Award, Dedication Award, Rider/Groom Award, Stud Staff Award, Community Award (in recognition of Rory MacDonald) and David Nicholson Newcomer Award (n.b. the David Nicholson Newcomer Award is for people who entered racing within the last three years).

The 'Community Award (in recognition of Rory MacDonald)' acknowledges those who have gone above and beyond their day-to-day role to support the stud and stable staff and made an outstanding contribution to benefit the wider racing community. The Awards provide an opportunity for the racing industry to highlight and thank the hard work put in by stud and stable staff across the country, and this award in particular acknowledges people who have gone the extra mile to make a positive difference to their community.

The winner of each of the first four categories will receive a prize of £5,000 with an additional £5,000 also being awarded to the winner's yard or stud. Two runners-up in each of these categories will win £2,000 each, with the same amount going to their yard or stud.

The winner of the Community Award will receive £5,000, with the same going to a charity of their choice. The two runners-up will receive £2,000, with the same going to a charity of their choice.

The winner of the David Nicholson Newcomer Award will receive £2,000, with the same amount going to their yard or stud, while two runners-up will receive £1,000 each, with the same amount for their yard. There is an additional prize for the winner of the David Nicholson Newcomer Award, which includes a five-day educational trip to Dubai provided by Godolphin. *

The Awards will also recognise an Employee of the Year, who will be selected from the winners of the first four categories. That winner will receive an additional prize of £10,000, with the same amount going to their yard or stud.

All those who make the shortlist of 10 for each category but do not progress to the final three will also receive £250 each in recognition of their achievement.

Nominations will close on Tuesday 09 November 2021 and can be made by anyone on behalf of anyone working in a yard or stud online at the Godolphin Stud and Stable Staff Awards website, studandstablestaffawards.co.uk.

Video submissions will once again be accepted in advance of the 2022 awards, ensuring that the nominations procedure is as fair as possible for all those involved, irrespective of their level of written communication and language skills.

The 2022 Judging Panel can be viewed here.

Dependent on travel restrictions due to COVID-19. If necessary, an educational trip to of some kind will be offered at Godolphin's discretion.*