SAFEGUARDING

Safeguarding is the action taken to promote the welfare of young and vulnerable people and protect them from harm.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility. If you or someone you know is at risk of harm or abuse then please report it.

Human welfare, drugs and alcohol

Riding under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs is an offence under the Rules of Racing.

Alcohol and/or drugs can affect a person's reaction time and judgement and ultimately the safety of themselves and others. For the safety of all athletes involved, any misuse of alcohol and/or drugs should be reported straightaway.

If you have concerns about the integrity of British racing or the wellbeing of the sport's participants, human or equine, please contact RaceWISE.

EQUALITY

Racing is everyone's sport. Disrespectful and discriminatory behaviour or unequal treatment is not tolerated.

Some comments or behaviour can be hurtful and offensive.

However big, small or insignificant you may feel the incident is, we all have a responsibility to call out and report inappropriate behaviour to ensure everyone feels welcome in our sport. You can remain anonymous throughout.

If you have concerns about the integrity of British racing or the wellbeing of the sport's participants, human or equine, please contact RaceWISE.
