

Finance Manager

Location: Primarily home-based (remote), with occasional travel to the RoR office, Trustee and Board meetings, British Horseracing Authority offices, and other locations as required.

Hours: Part-time (approximately 3 days per week or equivalent hours), with review as necessary.

Reporting to: Managing Director and Trustees

Salary: £31,623.60 (PTE)

Retraining of Racehorses (RoR) is British racing's official aftercare charity, dedicated to safeguarding the welfare of former racehorses and supporting them to thrive beyond the finish line.

Role Purpose

The Finance Manager has overall responsibility for the effective financial management of Retraining of Racehorses (RoR), ensuring the organisation maintains robust financial controls, statutory compliance, and high standards of financial governance.

Working closely with the Managing Director and Trustees, the postholder will provide accurate and timely financial information, strategic financial insight, and expert guidance to support decision-making, organisational sustainability, and the achievement of RoR's charitable objectives.

The role combines operational financial management with strategic planning and governance responsibilities, requiring a proactive and commercially aware finance professional with excellent technical expertise and stakeholder management skills.

Equal opportunities

We acknowledge that having a diverse and inclusive workforce is fundamental to our success and we actively encourage and welcome applications from candidates of diverse cultures, perspectives, and experiences. People with disabilities or from ethnically diverse communities are currently underrepresented in the organisation and therefore we welcome these candidates to apply.

For further information on the role, please see the job description here.

Please apply by sending your cover letter and CV to recruitment@britishhorseracing.com.

The closing date for applications is Sunday 20 September 2026.

Should you require any reasonable adjustments, please contact recruitment@britishhorseracing.com to provide further details.