Jockey Sponsorship - Code of Conduct

1. Introduction

This Code of Conduct (“the Code”) represents the sponsorship controls, for Jockey Sponsorship, approved by the British Horseracing Authority (“BHA”) under Rule \(E\)4 of the Rules of Racing.

No form of sponsorship may be carried on Jockeys’ equipment at race meetings held in Great Britain unless a contract has been registered with the BHA in accordance with the Code.

Sponsorship permitted under the Code only extends to race meetings held in Great Britain. As far as racing in other countries is concerned, any form of advertising/sponsorship on Jockeys’ equipment is a matter for the relevant Racing Authority.

Failure to comply with any part of the Code, as amended from time to time, will be a breach of the Rules of Racing for which warnings and penalties may be imposed. The penalties will range from a fine or referral to the BHA, depending upon circumstances.

Where the Code grants rights in favour of the Professional Jockeys Association (“PJA”) those rights shall be exercisable by the PJA or by PJA Commercial Limited.

The Code is effective as of 1 January 2024, replaces the previous Code of Conduct, and may be subject to amendment from time to time. Any renewal of existing contracts or registration of new contracts must comply with the Code, as amended, which may also be amended in future.

It is essential that both the spirit and letter of this Code are observed, by all parties, at all times.

British Horseracing Authority
1 January 2024

2. Branding Opportunities

Jockeys have specific branding opportunities on the following:

- | Breeches (defined as personal garments worn as part of a Jockeys' equipment)
- | Clothing (defined as personal garments worn underneath owners' silks, as part of a Jockeys' equipment)

Refer to Section 3 \(d\) for further details.

3. Jockey Sponsorship: Opportunities

This section of the Code lays down the sponsorship opportunities available to Jockeys.

- a) Definition of a Jockey
A Jockey means a person who holds a valid licence issued by the BHA which allows them to ride in Races, or equivalent licence issued by a Recognised Racing Authority, and includes Apprentice Jockeys, Conditional Jockeys, Overseas Jockeys and Amateur Jockeys.
- b) Definition of Sponsorship
'Sponsorship is a business relationship between a provider of funds, resources or services and an individual, event or organisation which offers in return rights and association that may be used for commercial advantage.' (S. Sleight; Sponsorship: 'What it is and how to use it' 1989)

It is emphasised that the key terms are business relationship and commercial advantage, which distinguish sponsorship from patronage, essentially an altruistic gesture. Sponsorship must be understood as similar to a partnership between two parties of mutual benefit to both.

- c) Definition of Logo
Short for logotype, a logo is a trade mark, company name/emblem or series of characters, which may be used within any of the branding sites referred to in the Code.
- d) What can be sold - Branding sites and sizes, appearance and method of fixing.

These dimensions comply with the UK Code of Broadcast Advertising ("The BCAP Code").

Branding Sites: Jockeys' Breeches

There shall be four branding sites only available on Jockeys' breeches as follows:

- Thigh site      Two identical sites, each of 32 sq. inches (209 sq. cm), each site placed on outer sides of breeches, positioned between hip and knee.
- Coccyx site      One site of 10 sq. inches (64 sq. cm), placed on rear of breeches, at base of spine.
- Posterior site      One site of 32 sq. inches (209 sq. cm), on the rear of the breeches, positioned below the coccyx site. This site is the property of the PJA and as such, may only be sold by them as part of a group deal. All income generated from the use of this site shall be retained by the PJA.

This site will only be available to PJA Members, save as may be agreed from time to time between the BHA and the PJA, and it will be mandatory for all PJA members from 1st April 2017.

Branding Sites: Jockeys' Clothing

There shall be one branding site only available on Jockeys' clothing worn underneath owners' silks (such as roll-neck/polo neck-type-apparel), as follows:

Neck site            One site of 6 sq. inches (38.5 sq. cm), placed on the stock centre front of clothing.

See Appendix 1 for an illustration of the above branding sites.

Appearance and Fixing

Full colours are permissible. Logos should be stitched or printed on the branding sites. Jockeys must always carry an unbranded set of breeches and clothing, which must be used in the event of any non-compliance with the Code. Branding must comply with the Code at all times when it appears on the racecourse in the following locations:

- i)            in any stabling area or horsebox
- ii)          in the pre-parade or parade ring
- iii)         on the race track
- iv)         in the winner's enclosure and any other unsaddling area
- v)          whilst mounted on a horse
- vi)         in the weighing room
- vii)        whilst proceeding between any of the above locations

With the exception of the Posterior site, the branding sites on Jockeys' breeches and clothing shall belong to individual Jockeys. The owners of the branding sites may, according to commercial considerations, sell the rights to their own sites individually or collectively.

No form of sponsorship may be carried on Jockeys' breeches and clothing at race meetings held in Great Britain unless a contract has been registered with the BHA in accordance with the Code.

The use of any other clothing or equipment for branding purposes is expressly prohibited under the Code. This would include, but not be restricted to, baseball caps, other headgear, clothing, eyewear etc.

Jockeys will also note that they are required to comply with the agreed conditions for Media Interviews/Trophy Presentations as in Appendix 3 to this Code.

4. Registration of Contracts

Individual Contracts

The Jockey must register a written contract with the BHA through the Sponsorship Desk at Weatherbys (sponsorship@weatherbys.co.uk) where the details of the contract will be checked for compliance with the Code. Attached at Appendix 2 is a proforma contract setting out the minimum information required before approval and is available from the BHA and PJA websites. The maximum period of continuous sponsorship before renewal is 36 months.

The contract must be completed and signed by the Jockey and the Sponsor for approval, registration, and publication by the BHA prior to the first appearance of any branding on a racecourse permitted by the Code. Such branding must match that agreed in the contract registration.

The minimum value for Jockeys' sponsorship contracts will be £1000 + VAT (where applicable) per year.

A fee in accordance with the Fee Code is due to the BHA at the time of registration. No registration will be effected until such time as the fee has been paid. Fees can be paid through:

- i) BHA or Weatherbys Account (subject to sufficient funds)
- ii) Bank Transfer or Card (by telephone to Sponsorship Desk: 01933 440077)
- iii) Cheque made payable to BHA

The amount of the registration fee is subject to an annual review.

Group Contracts (Posterior site)

In the case of a group sponsorship of the Posterior site, the Professional Jockeys Association (PJA) is the authorised agent for all PJA members and will arrange necessary registration of Posterior site sponsorship on confirmation of membership. Full details of the group sponsorship agreement are available from the PJA. It is essential that all parties to the contract recognise the need to comply with the Code, as amended from time to time.

5. Distribution of Income

The branding sites on Jockeys' breeches (apart from the Posterior site) and Jockeys' clothing, shall belong to individual Jockeys, who may, according to commercial considerations, sell the rights to these individual sites individually or collectively.

Income generated through sponsorship of Jockeys' clothing and breeches sites (excluding the Posterior site) under the Code, must be paid to and administered by the Stakeholders, Weatherbys, as appointed under the Rules of Racing.

All income generated from sponsorship of the Posterior site shall belong to the PJA. The money generated by the Posterior site will be used to benefit those PJA members participating in group sponsorship of the Posterior site through various schemes organised by the PJA. At the date of publication of the Code, the money was to be used towards the cost of Career Ending Injury insurance for PJA members.

6. Unacceptable Products or Services

All sponsorship or advertising under the Code must also comply with the UK Code of Broadcast Advertising (“The BCAP Code”).

Under The BCAP Code the following products or services are listed as unacceptable:

- i) All tobacco products
- ii) Betting systems and products that are intended to facilitate winning games of chance
- iii) Breath-testing devices or products which mask the effects of alcohol
- iv) Guns and gun clubs
- v) Prostitution and sexual massage
- vi) Obscene material
- vii) Pyramid promotional schemes

The above list of unacceptable products is not exhaustive and under Rule \(E\)6 the BHA shall have complete discretion whether to approve and register any sponsorship contract. Any contact submitted relating, in the opinion of the Directors, to an unacceptable product or service, will not be approved or registered, and Jockeys will not be permitted to carry any logos under such contracts.

7. Sponsorship by Betting Organisations

Jockeys' sponsorship by Betting Organisations remains subject to on-going review and scrutiny and, should good cause be shown at any time, may be subject to cancellation and removal from the register of sponsorship agreements maintained by the BHA. This does not affect the BHA's general powers as to registration as set out in the Rules of Racing

All non-riding commercial agreements with Betting Organisations are also subject to separate registration and approval in accordance with Rule \(J\)2.

8. Sourcing Branding

Following the signing of a contract and registration with the BHA, arrangements must be made to produce branding on the Jockey's breeches and/or clothing. Details of known manufacturers can be obtained from the PJA.

It is the Jockey's responsibility to ensure that the branding supplied by the manufacturer meets the requirements of the Code.

9. Exclusivity Arrangements: The Aintree Grand National Meeting and The Epsom Derby Meeting

The Aintree Grand National Meeting and The Epsom Derby Meeting have optional exclusivity arrangements for all Jockeys' branding sites for all races run at these meetings. Jockeys must not carry branding on their equipment for any race(s) run at these race meetings if this option is exercised by the Race sponsor.

A Jockey may enter into a contract with Meeting sponsors or Race sponsors at either Meeting, provided it meets the approval of their respective sponsor, the respective owner(s) of horse(s) running at the Meetings and the BHA. Details of these arrangements, including race meeting sponsorship payments, will appear in the Racing Calendar from time to time in accordance with the Race Conditions.

10. Visibility of Branding Sites

The branding sites and sizes covered by the Code must be respected by all parties. Any obstruction of the visibility of legitimate branding sites by any party, whether pre-meditated or otherwise, is prohibited, except where such action is taken on the grounds of horse welfare or exclusive sponsorship rights, e.g. The Grand National and Derby Meetings. Such practice may constitute a breach of the Rules of Racing for which penalties may be imposed.

11. Conditional and Apprentice Jockeys

Any sponsorship contract for Conditional or Apprentice Jockeys submitted for registration to the Sponsorship Desk will also need to include the signature of the employing Trainer. If the Jockey is under eighteen years of age, the signature of a parent/guardian will also be required.

Unless waived by the employing Trainer, any sponsorship income earned by either a Conditional or Apprentice Jockey will be split between the Jockey and the employing Trainer in the same way as prize money is distributed in the Rules of Racing and the Apprentice Riding Agreement.

Any Conditional or Apprentice Jockey who is a member of the PJA shall wear the PJA Group Sponsorship branding on the Posterior site and does not have to seek permission to wear this branding from their employing Trainer or their parent/guardian. No payment will be received by the employing Trainer from the Apprentice or Conditional Jockey in respect of the Posterior site.

12. Amateur Jockeys

Amateur Jockeys are excluded from seeking sponsorship income for themselves as any payment would, through Rule \(B\)38 make the rider ineligible to hold an Amateur Jockeys' licence.

However, providing a minimum payment of £250 is paid through registration to the Amateur Jockeys Association and no payment of any kind is made to an Amateur Jockey in return for the appearance of branding on breeches or clothing as outlined in Section 3(d), then such Amateur Jockey may be permitted to carry such branding. In these circumstances, references to 'Jockeys' in the Code are to be construed as applying to Amateur Jockeys. No contract will be registered until such time as the payment of the £250 has been made.

The Posterior site on the breeches is not available to Amateur Jockeys as they are not, by definition, members of the PJA.

No applications for Amateur Jockeys seeking sponsorship from a Betting Organisation under Section 7 of the Code will be considered.

13. Effective Date

This edition of the Jockeys' Sponsorship - Code of Conduct becomes effective from 1 January 2024 but it may be subject to amendment from time to time.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS/TROPHY PRESENTATION PROTOCOL

1. Introduction

This protocol is published following discussions between the PJA, the Racecourse Association (RCA), the Horserace Sponsors Association (HSA) and the BHA. They have been introduced with the aim of raising Racing's overall profile and accommodating the needs of racegoers on whose support we rely so heavily.

If Racing is to continue to compete and keep abreast of other sports, we have to make increased efforts to present ourselves in a favourable light. Every major sport including Football, Rugby and Cricket have brought in new marketing and presentation techniques and Racing must follow suit.

Jockeys are no different to footballers and other sportspersons in that the public wants to hear your views, take photographs and secure your autograph. If Racing and Jockeys raise their overall profile, then we all benefit and you are expected to adhere to the protocol at all times. We can assure you that we are not trying to invade your privacy or cause embarrassment in awkward situations. We are merely trying to improve Racing's image for the benefit of all.

2. Trophy Presentations / Race-Sponsor Presentations

- a) If riding in the following race, Jockeys should, time permitting, place the Owners' colours from the race relevant to the trophy presentation over any other colours. Jockeys should then proceed to the trophy presentation immediately.
- b) At no stage can a Jockey wear any sponsored clothing other than the logos allowed on his/her riding equipment in compliance with the Code of Conduct for Jockey Sponsorship.
- c) Even if riding at an evening meeting, Jockeys are asked to remain on course for Trophy or Race-Sponsor Presentations.
- d) If possible, Jockeys should make every effort to thank the sponsors involved for their support and pose for any necessary photographs.

3. Television Interviews

If approached by BBC, Channel 4, Racing UK, At The Races or Sky, following the running of a televised race, Jockeys are requested to agree to an interview. This would be the normal procedure in other sports where competitors/players must attend a press conference or give a televised interview. On the vast majority of occasions the broadcasters are not there to ask difficult questions but merely to inform the viewer as to what happened in a given race.

Jockeys are also asked, where possible, to respond positively to requests by local and regional television and radio stations as they do much to promote racing in their catchment area.

4. Press Conferences - Feature Races

Following the running of major races, the press will want to record the views of the winning Jockey. A number of racecourses now have designated interview area/press conference room. In future these facilities will be used to ask questions in the form of a press conference. This should be easier for Owners, Trainers and Jockeys as opposed to the informal questioning in and around the Winner's Enclosure.

Jockeys are asked, where possible, to make time to attend these press conferences following the major races.

5. Racecourse Interviews - Public Address System

To assist racegoers, interviews with Owners, Trainers and Jockeys will often be conducted over the Racecourse Public Address System. These could take place before or during racing and Jockeys are again requested, where possible, to grant interviews if approached by the Racecourse Executive. The questions may be of a basic nature but they are of great interest to the racegoer.

6. General

Jockeys are reminded that when giving interviews as outlined above, they should refrain from commenting on any Stewards' Enquiries immediately after races, so as not to prejudice any outcome of such enquiries. Jockeys are also reminded if there are contentious issues being discussed, of the need to keep comments legal and be aware of the laws of defamation.

Compliance with any part of this Protocol must not unnecessarily affect the smooth running of Racing and in particular, must not delay the weigh-in procedures or affect the start of any race.
